LEGEND

*O
The*

As the doors widen to reveal our moral fiber, we set the pace for our coming years. As the young Indian brave set out to hunt and to prove himself a man, we are about to reveal our moral fiber. We, like the Indian of long ago, act according to the pattern to which we have become accustomed. Our ideals, ambitions and dreams are but a step forward. The ideals of Indians were very different from ours. They worshipped more than one God, such as the Gods of the Sun and Moon. Their greatest desire was that their children marry a hard-working person instead of marrying only for love. The young Indian boy's greatest ambition was to become a brave, courageous man who would be able to protect his family. A young Indian girl's ambition was to be strong enough to raise and gather food for her children.

So our LEGEND OF THE REDSKINS is foretold within. The very days that to us were so unmeaningful are an expression of what is to be in the days, months, and years that lie so near to our footsteps.

What is in the realm of our reach is yet unknown but is seen as a dimly-lit candle which increases its flame by every fleeting second.

ERWIN HIGH SCHOOL

Foreword

The Redskin has long been a traditional part of Erwin High School. One sees the emblem on our school rings, on notebooks, and even on license plates. The Redskin is a symbol of our high athletic rank, sportsmanship, and high standards of conduct and service. The class of nineteen hundred and sixty-three has chosen the Redskin to lead us through the pages of our annual, the HOURGLASS---through its many pleasant memories. We hope that in future years as you thumb through the old and worn pages of our yearbook, the Redskin will lead you back to many happy memories of classmates and events. We, the class of nineteen hundred and sixty-three, with a sense of pride and satisfaction, present to Erwin High School, the HOURGLASS OF 1963.

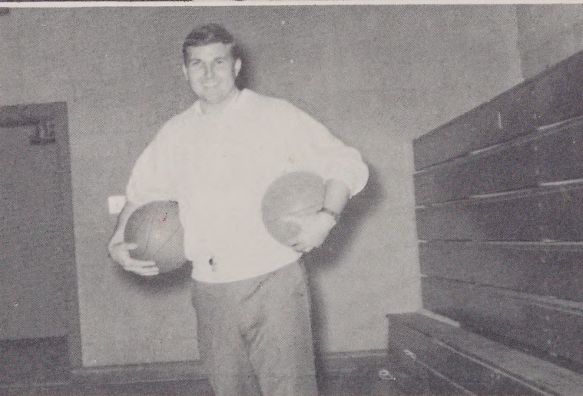

Dedication

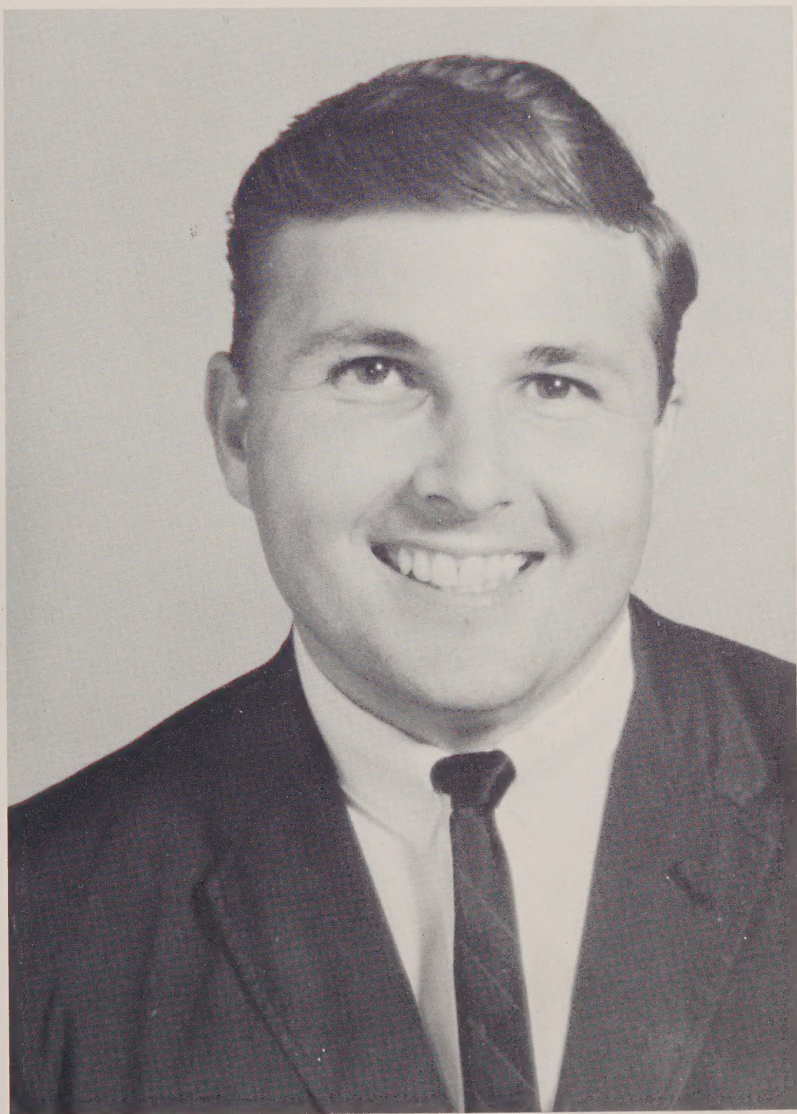

We, the graduating class of 1963, are honored to be able to dedicate our annual to Mr. THOMAS OLIVER DAVIS.

One of the characteristics we remember most is his outstanding smile and his amazing humor. We cannot name all of his extraordinary qualities; but there is one that comes first to our minds---his devotion to the school, to the church, and to his family. We, the Senior Class, think that he is one of the most outstanding teachers in Erwin High School.

We feel that dedicating our annual to him is only a small token of our appreciation for all the things that he has done for us during our high school days.

Therefore, we dedicate the HOURGLASS of 1963 to MR. THOMAS OLIVER DAVIS.

Hello,

I'm Ervie, the Indian. I have come to take you on a visit through the doors of "dear ole Erwin." We may see STRANGE things, HAPPY things, SAD things, or things that we should not see at all! But you come if you dare; and if you can keep a secret, I'll show and tell you many things that I should not even know. Just come with me, and we'll see a lot, yes, quite a lot indeed.

Yours truly,

Ervie

Class History

It seems as though it were only yesterday that we were freshmen. Excited and confused, we scampered about the campus, getting into the wrong classes. However, after two weeks we settled down and chose the following students to represent us as class officers: President, Linda Gregory; Vice-President, Driscoll Barbour; Secretary, Jonnie Ennis; Treasurer, Jimmy Harper. The class made a good start when several of the boys made the football, basketball, and baseball teams. We were also well represented in the various clubs with members in the F.T.A., F.H.A., and with representatives on the Student Council.

As sophomores we gained self-confidence. We settled down for a year of hard work which resulted in the tapping of fourteen of our classmates into the Beta Club. They were Mary Simmons, Judy Wade, Melba Hardin, Jimmy Woodruff, Jan Avery, Theron Miller, Jr., Billy Melvin, Vicki Williams, Madeline Powell, Sandra Gregory, Tillie Blackmon, Patricia Byrd, Shirley Byrd, and Ann Adair. Three were elected as officers for the coming year. Vicki was chosen Secretary; Ann, Vice-President, and Judy, Historian. The leaders of our class for that year were Jimmy Woodruff, President; Linda Gregory, Vice-President; and Secretary-Treasurer, Driscoll Barbour.

"We're Juniors! We're Juniors," was the cry heard as we entered our junior year as "upperclassmen." This year was to be one of the most thrilling years of our lives. We would publish the HI-LITE, present a play, and, most exciting of all, give the junior-senior prom. The class elected Tillie Blackmon and Billy Melvin as co-editors of the school newspaper. Those working closely with them were Vicki Williams and Ricky Odom as co-business managers and ever faithful sponsor of the three years, Mrs. Sarah Hudson, better known as "Mom Hudson."

Before Christmas we presented the junior play, "Which Shall He Marry?", a three-act comedy directed by Mr. Joe Woodworth.

As the homecoming activities rolled around, the juniors were well represented on the court by five sweethearts. Our own Vicki Williams was crowned queen. The others on the court were Pat Byrd, Betty King, Tillie Blackmon, and Judy Wade.

The highlight of the year was the PROM. We started work in April; the "big night" was to be on May 12. The theme that we chose was "An Evening In Paris." We will always remember the work that turned the gym into a dreamland that seemed to cave in at midnight.

The officers for the year were President, Jimmy Woodruff; Vice-President, Sammy Bryant; Secretary, Vicki Williams; and Treasurer, Driscoll Barbour.

Finally, we were the all-important seniors. We immediately started working hard to make the best of our last year at Erwin High School.

The class officers for the year were Sammy Bryant, President; Bennie Godwin, Vice-President; Vicki Williams, Secretary; Linda Gregory, Treasurer; and Sergeant-at-Arms, Ricky Odom.

Our class chose Melba Hardin and Jimmy Woodruff to be co-editors of the HOURGLASS. Helen Guin and Roy Godwin were elected to serve as co-business managers.

Ricky Odom was elected President of the Student Council. Vicki Williams was chosen by the faculty to receive the D.A.R. Citizenship Award. Billy Melvin and Jimmy Woodruff were selected as the nominees for the coveted Moorehead Scholarship.

Spring brought other events leading to graduation. Thus ends our beloved years at old E.H.S. But these years will never be forgotten; because while reviewing our history for you, we have recaptured many memories that we shall cherish forever.

May your days at E.H.S. be as rewarding and happy as ours have been.

Historian,
Judy Wade

Class

Time: Day in 1973

Occasion: Reunion of the Senior Class of 1963

Place: Small Indian Village near Erwin

Ladies and gentlemen: you are about to witness the most outstanding reunion in history. We are approaching a small Indian village in the outskirts of Erwin, North Carolina. The tribe that lives there is called the Apache Tribe.

The chief of the first small tribe is none other than Jimmy Woodruff, alias Big Chief Crazy Horse. The assistant chief is the all-time Sammy Bryant, known as Little Chief Riding Bull. Jimmy and Sammy always did show outstanding leadership during our school days. With Jimmy is his most efficient secretary, Judy Wood. I understand Judy really uses her shorthand.

Big Chief Crazy Horse has offered to show me around his village. Walking through the village, I see many familiar faces.

Hey, Chief, I remember having seen those young squaws standing by that large tepee. Look, its' Driscoll Barbour, Judy Coats, and Helen Guin. I believe Helen is the one who always wanted to be a nurse. They certainly resemble the family-type; and look, there's Drucilla McDonald, talking to Lois Stewart about her papoose. My, doesn't he look cute!

Who are those husky Redskins, carrying deer on their backs? They look like the hunters, Donald Turnage, Joe Odom, and Bobby Phillips. I remember they always did hunt quite a bit.

My, just look at those handsome men, standing by that decorated tepee. They look like Larry Matthews and Eddie Miller. I remember they were really ladies' men.

Chief, that young couple who are approaching-aren't they Nixon Aman and Norma Turpin? My, they seem happy!

What are those Redskins doing in the clearing? It looks as if they are playing football. Aren't they Al Woodall, Bennie Godwin, and Kelly Horne. They are still keeping up the Redskins' tradition. Al Woodall is still the "SHINING STAR." Hey, isn't that Bobby Johnson, running with the water bucket. I see that Bobby still is the head water carrier for the Redskins.

The redheaded man and his assistant, making those small warriors laugh, are the all-time famous team, Jimmy Harper and Jewell Tyndall, better known as the Big Hearts.

Look, isn't that Vicki Williams, following close behind the good-looking brave, Billy Melvin. Those two really made a big hit.

Look, those two squaws with books, sitting in front of the school tepee look like Gloria Gullede and Carolyn Crane. They always did like to study.

Listen, do you hear the singing? That voice sounds exactly like Betty King's. It is Betty Ann! And that's Frank Ralph with her; he must be her manager.

Thanks, Chief for showing me around your village, but I think I shall stroll over to the next village.

Before I go any further, I shall explain that a misunderstanding exists between the two tribes. Because of a fight, Joe McLamb of the Apache Tribe refuses to smoke the peacepipe with Theron Miller of the Comanche Tribe.

We are now entering the Comanche Territory. Its chief is Roy Godwin, Big Chief Sitting Bull, who refuses to sign the peace treaty. Roy, after the death of his Great Chief Father, became the Chief of the Comanche Tribe. With Roy is his outstanding and remarkable secretary, Carole Pope. Carole always did like to work. Roy is going to exhibit his tribe for me.

Chief, aren't those squaws, who are riding palominos over the hills, Betty Porter and Linda Turnage. They were always interested in horses.

Prophecy

Look, isn't that Drucilla Avery, Martha Ralph, and Linda Lee, who are making rugs? My, but their home economics has come in handy!

Chief, I understand that your wife is the all-time beauty queen, Ann Adair. Ann always did have a way with you.

Who are those squaws chasing after your braves? Aren't they Rhonda Godwin and Ruby Williams. Rhonda and Ruby did love their men.

Chief, look who's standing by the candy tepee! Isn't that Madeline Powell and Sandra Gregory. I remember how much they loved their candy.

That young squaw, who is arguing with her brave, looks like Sunnie Horne. She always had a knack for starting arguments.

Who are those beautiful squaws coming toward us? They resemble Jonnie Ennis, Linda Gregory, and Janette Reeves. Those girls have really kept up their looks.

Chief, the three braves sitting off to themselves remind me of Roger Lucas, Tony Morrison, and Mackie Taylor. They never were for strenuous exercise, always trying to get out of work.

That strong, good-looking man, standing by the horses is Jan Avery; I would recognize him anywhere. I heard he's the village medicine man.

Isn't that Melba Hardin, talking to Judy Wade and Mary Simmons. She used to be good at settling disputes. I understand she is the social worker here.

Chief, that man resembles Ricky Odom. It is he. I understand that Ricky is the head announcer. Those squaws, listening to the news, are Linda Thornton and Alma Vann.

I see Connie Quick coaching the Squaws' basketball team. The team appears to be in good shape. Connie always did love basketball.

Who is that crazy man, jumping around the council ring? He resembles Tommy Royals. He has finally been chosen Chief Rain Dancer for the tribe. Tommy has really lived up to his claim "Where there's be-boping, there is rain."

Who are those two squaws coming toward us. It looks like Faye Wade and Rochelle O'Quinn. They never did want to settle down, but they surely seem happy.

And now, this colorful reunion must come to an end. I am sure this reunion will be an occasion which we shall always cherish as one of the most enjoyable events of our lives. It was a pleasure to have you on this trip.

So long,
Patricia Byrd

Last Will And Testament

Erwin High School
May 31, 1963

State of North Carolina
County of Harnett
City of Erwin

We, the Graduating Class of 1963, being of sound body, mentally, physically, and morally, do hereby declare these statements to be our last will and testament.

ARTICLE I

To Our Parents: We leave our deepest love and appreciation for making our school years possible.

ARTICLE II

To the faculty: We leave our gratitude for the effort put forth to give us knowledge.

ARTICLE III

To Mrs. Papadeas and Mr. Pope (Our Sponsors): We leave our love and gratitude for their patience and thoughtful guidance.

ARTICLE IV

To Mr. Jones: We promise to fulfill his encouragement, and we leave our eternal gratitude for his untiring efforts to make our lives more prosperous.

ARTICLE V

To the Juniors: We leave our studious ways, our dignified behavior, and most of all, our Senior privileges, hoping you will have the front seats the first time you go to chapel.

ARTICLE VI

Ann Adair and Helen Guin leave their ability to create excitement to Dorothy Bennett and Rebecca Whittington. "Stand still if you want to, but I like to be moving on."

Carolyn Crane and Sandra Gregory leave their quiet ways to Louise Core and Theresa Coleman. "It is better to be seen and not heard."

Bobby Johnson leaves his gentlemanly manners to Jackie Wood and Joey Giles. "Ladies love gentlemen."

Nixon Aman leaves his ability to "go steady" to David Raynor and Larry Jones. "Girls are a man's best friend."

Ricky Odom and Eddie Miller leave their ability to always have an excuse to Carlos Norris. "Well--I was just standing there."

Kelly Horne leaves his ability to avoid any one girl to Jimmy Simpson. "Give me a hundred beautiful girls, but give me one at a time."

Jimmy Harper leaves his ability to make strange noises to Benny Duquette and Gerald Oldham. "The wild are not all in the jungle."

Joe McLamb leaves his ability to stay out of school on Friday to LaFayette Trogden and Danny Tyndall. "Nothing like being used to a thing."

Tony Morrison leaves his ability to make others laugh to Ronald Patterson and Herbert Horne. "Laugh and the worlds laughs with you."

Al Woodall leaves his height to Wade Turner and Ricky Norris. "Not to the top but climbing."

Theron Miller leaves his ability to eat to Larry Johnson and Joseph Smith. "The way to a man's heart is through his stomach."

Donald Turnage leaves his ability to catch up on his sleep to Gayle Hobbs and Steve Gullede. "Blessings on him who first invented sleep."

Patricia Byrd leaves her ability to obtain a diamond to Carol Sessoms and Edna Burnside. "A diamond is a girl's best friend."

Drucilla Avery wills her money-making ability to Gloria Deck and Becky Bennett. "A penny saved is a penny earned."

Billy Melvin leaves his ability to keep laughing to Rudy Stephenson. "He was born with a gift of laughter."

Lois Stewart and Drucilla McDonald leave their ability to get along in the world to Judy Melvin and Vicki Tucker. "As though the world and she were hand and glove."

Madeline Powell and Linda Lee leave their politeness to Marilyn Faircloth and Brenda West. "I'm the peak of courtesy."

Betty Jean Porter and Carol Pope will their uncanny ways to Sue Jones and Willie Strickland. "She is as crazy as a March Hare."

Rhonda Godwin and Ruby Williams leave their inseparable ways to Betty Fish and Betty Tripp. "A friend in need is a friend indeed."

Rochelle O'Quinn and Gloria Gullede will their ability to get everything confused to Judy Jones and Shelia

Johnston. "Nothing ventured, nothing gained."

Alma Vann and Linda Turnage will their carefree ways to Frances Tew and Judy Pope. "The only way to get rid of temptation is to yield to it."

Mackie Taylor leaves his driving ability to Bruce Johnson. "Man can die, but only once."

Jimmy Woodruff wills ability to tell jokes to Jimmy Wade. "He who lives without folly is unwise."

Bennie Godwin wills his witty remarks to Ronald Harrelson. "Life to me is just a comedy."

Donnie Haire wills his reserved ways to Wayne Avery, David Capps, and Marshall Faircloth. "For he was just the quiet kind whose nature never varied."

Norma Turpin leaves her friendly ways to Judy Glover. "The one way to have a friend is to be one."

Linda Thornton and Faye Wade leave their quiet manners to Jo Ann Hawley and Barbara Tart. "The truly civilized ones have no enemies."

Roger Lucas wills his dependability to Shelton Horne and Lee McLean. "So much one man can do, that does both act now."

Judy Wade and Martha Ralph leave their flirtatious ways to Linda Smith and Judy Hall. "Many small things amount to great things."

Melba Hardin leaves her leadership ability to Yvonne Wilson, and Barbara West. "Sharp's the word for them."

Frank Ralph leaves his artistic talent to Stanley Lucas. "Art is nature, made by men."

Betty King wills her pretty complexion, just as it is, to Frankie Avery and Sylvia Beasley. "Beauty draws more than the beast."

Connie Quick leaves her basketball ability to Carolyn Murray. "Eat those Wheaties, girl."

Mary Love Simmons leaves her scholastic grades to Susan Parker, Susie Morgan, and Carolyn Johnson. "The sky's the limit."

Joe Odom wills his ability to get along with the teachers to Warren Hobbs and L.D. Colville. He knew on which side his bread was buttered."

J.E. Davis wills six inches of his height to Ray Baker. "Little people have big hearts."

Linda Gregory and Judy Wood leave their kindness to Grace Earnshaw and Brenda Ivey. "She who plants kindness gathers love."

Roy Godwin leaves his ability to shoot squirrels to Charles Barbour and Granville Avery. "Shoot first; ask questions later."

Sammy Bryant leaves his ability to go with several girls at one time to Ronnie Roudebush. "A girl in every port."

Tommy Royals leaves his position as End on the football team to Lynn Tyndall and Tommy Norris. "If you see me coming, better step aside."

Justus Capps leaves his ability to make out to Jimmy Smith and Kenneth Stone. "All the world loves a lover."

Jan Avery leaves his title of "Mr. President" to Eddie Lee. "This I have earned with the sweat of my brow."

Larry Matthews will his determination to Ronald Miriello and Durwood Strickland. "Anything worth having doesn't come easy."

Sunny Horne leaves her various ways to Ann Turner and Diane Sease. "Variety is the spice of life."

Driscoll Barbour and Judy Coats leave their easy-going ways to Gail Wood and Gail Beasley. "Whatever she attempted, she performed."

Vicki Williams leaves her loveable personality to Roslyn Bowers. "The best is yet to come."

Janette Reaves leaves her ability to succeed in business to Sue Hall and Lois Johnson. "Grace is a gift of God, but knowledge is bought in the market."

As for me, I leave God's blessings upon all of you and hope you will have as many happy memories as I have had in Erwin High School.

While watching you at play, I took out my camera and notebook and recorded many memorable events. You accomplished much this year in the field of sports. An outstanding team in every way is to be congratulated on their sportsmanship.

I hope that these small bits of memory will impress a lasting remembrance upon your mind.

The Erwin Redskins, Central Class 2A Runners-up, experienced their second straight undefeated regular season. Under the direction of Coach John L. Pecore, the "Skins" won the Pioneer Conference Championship in its first year of existence and went as far as the Central Championship before losing their final game.

The Redskins gave their town and school much to be proud of as they took their inexperienced team to victory over such teams as 2A Cary, 2A Siler City, and 3A Graham. Only through teamwork and excellent sportsmanship was this record made possible.

Girls' Basketball Team

This year the girl's basketball team, under the direction of Mr. T. O. Davis, got off to a good start. Such regulars as Vicki Williams, Sue Hall, Barbara West, Carolyn Murray were the deciding factors for the girls. Reserves offered additional strength to the team.

With only one girl graduating, Coach Davis is looking forward to an exceptionally good year next year.

Boys' Basketball Team

FRONT ROW: L to R: Manager Mike Williams, Announcer Joe Odom, SECOND ROW: Coach William Corbett, Eddie Miller, Bennie Godwin, Al Woodall, Eddie Lee, Lee McLean, Don Turnage, Ricky Manning, Mackie Taylor. THIRD ROW: Joe McLamb, Kelly Horne, Jimmy Woodruff, David Raynor, Jimmy Wade, Bill Horne, Ricky Odom, Time Keeper Tommy Royals.

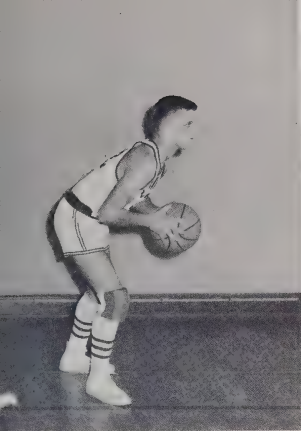

The Erwin Redskins' basketball team should have a lot to look forward to with the entire first unit back from last year. Coach William Corbett's five should experience as good a season as there has been in Erwin in past years.

Autographs

Elaine,

My days at E. H. S. are quickly drawing to a close, but I have many memories that I'll cherish forever. The best is yet to come for you. Make the best of your years in school.

I know all the success and happiness in the world will come to you, a most deserving person.

Best of Luck
Judy Wade

Elaine,

It has been fun knowing you all these years. We have really had some fun haven't we? Remember last year on the ballfield?

You are a very sweet girl so always stay the same. And, for heavens sake quit being so mean!! Maybe next year we can get in the same room, and have some more fun.

Well good luck in every thing you do and the best of everything

Love Always

Elaine,

It has been nice having a friend like you for the past years. Just think of all the fun we've had. Like remember the time*!!? Well you know which ones I mean. The fun we have had on Sunday afternoon riding around. (Dunn)

Remember the times you got me in and out of trouble with Phil?!! The Sunday we went to W P / B in Benson?!! who was it we saw? Remember the Sunday you, Raymond me, Walter, Jane, Judy, Linda and Carolyn went riding around? what a "baa" we had. especially behind the 505.

Well it's time to stop thinking of the past and start thinking of the future and the fun we are going to have. Especially on Sunday when I sit in the car.

I hope Raymond J. lives his month "short" don't you?

Well I have got to quit before I fall on you. Be sweet and be ready to go. I wish you and that some one special (P.) the best of luck always, because you know what he told me (May 26, 1903)

May you have a successful and bright future always, and May God bless and keep you always because if he doesn't no one else will.

Love ya!
a friend always
Jean

P.S. Always tell the youth (Please) and you might get (03) I hope you do anyway Because he really loves you Ha! Ha! Ha!
You really need him don't you?
Well I'll see you Sunday (O.K.?)
Best Luck always because you are going to need it from now on.
